

Kid Pack Challenge

Join other businesses in a friendly competition to end childhood hunger!

Kid Packs are a special pack of kid-friendly foods that provide a source of weekend nutrition to elementary students facing hunger. Each week of the school year Helena Food Share distributes an average of 1,000 Kid Packs to elementary schools in the Greater Helena Area, this equates to over 38,000 packs per year!

We are looking for business partners to help keep our local children fed.
Are you up for the challenge?

Kid Pack Challenge 2017

July 1st - September 30th

Helena Food Share will make a Kid Pack presentation to staff of participating businesses and encourage employees to make a financial contribution to the program.

Participating businesses will make a minimum contribution of $1,000 to the Kid Pack Program, but are encouraged to match employee donations.

Businesses are invited to challenge another business to a Kid Pack Build Race.
Who can build 1,000 packs the fastest?

Participating businesses will receive a certificate from Helena Food Share to hang in their place of business and will be featured as a Kid Pack Challenger on Helena Food Share's website.
